

Historic Lampasas
Gateway to the Hill Country
Saratoga of the South

Nestled in the heart of the picturesque hill country lies Lampasas. Known as the "Saratoga of the South" in the late 1800's, Lampasas' springs, creeks and rivers today offer the same quiet relaxation and abundant recreation. *

Year Round Fun-
Summer is ushered in with evening concerts under the stars. Fall begins the hunting season with its varied and abundant wildlife. Winter brings a cascade of lights, ornaments and Yule cheer as the community celebrates Christmas with old fashioned events. Spring bursts forth with vivid colors, as the hills are adorned with wildflowers. Golfing and watersports are favorites year round. Sulpher Springs runs through the town with additional springs throughout the city.*
